Update re: Child and Youth Opportunity Fund

This update is from the Wiikwemkoong Child and Family Services about the Child and Youth Opportunity Fund (CYOF).

The program is currently open and receiving applications. CYOF Team has started the review process, and applications will be assessed and processed as quickly as possible.

We understand how important timely approval is for families, youth, and community organizations. Please know that we recognize the urgency and are working diligently to move everything forward. While we cannot provide exact timelines, we are hopeful that positive responses will begin to go out soon.

We sincerely appreciate your continued patience and understanding as we complete this important work. Your commitment to supporting children and youth in our community inspires us, and we remain dedicated to ensuring this fund is administered with care and fairness.

Miigwech,

Wiikwemkoong Child and Family Services
