

Call for Applications: Board of Directors

Wiikwemkoong For-Profit Entity

Deadline to apply: November 5, 2026, 9PM EST

Wiikwemkoong Unceded Territory (WUT) is seeking candidates who bring a commitment to WUT's long-term interests through their skills, commercial experience, and sound judgment to serve on the Board of Directors for WUT's For-Profit entity.

The Board will be responsible for providing commercial oversight, strengthening accountability, and supporting disciplined decision-making as the For-Profit entity evaluates and pursues businesses, investments, partnerships, and other commercial opportunities on behalf of WUT.

The Board is expected to be comprised of five voting directors, with a mix of skills and expertise in line with the sample criteria listed below.

Skill Area	Priority
Commercial governance	Core
Finance and accounting literacy	Core
Investment and transaction review	Core
Indigenous economic development	Core
Governance and legal risk, and compliance	Core
Environmental, Social and Cultural Stewardship	Core
Ability to exercise judgment, confidentiality, and maintain independence	Mandatory

Skill Area	Priority
Major projects and infrastructure	Strategic
Real estate and asset management	Strategic
Operations and business scaling	Strategic
Business Development, Partnership Negotiation	Strategic
Human resources and executive oversight	Helpful
Community trust and communications	Helpful
Industry-specific experience (e.g., tourism, agriculture, renewable energy, real estate, etc.)	Helpful
Executive management/leadership	Helpful

Recruitment and Appointment Process

The recruitment and screening process will be managed by an independent selection committee.

1. Invite qualified candidates to apply
2. Screen candidates
3. Score candidate
4. Interview short-listed candidates
5. Complete references and background checks
6. Recommend directors to WUT Chief and Council for approval
7. Complete orientation before the first substantive Board meeting.

For more information and for consideration, submit your CV and a short cover letter, with the subject line

“For Profit Board of Directors Application” by November 5, 2026 at 9PM EST to:

Nikki Manitowabi

FP Corp@wiikwemkoong.ca

705 859 3122 ext 239

Only successful candidates will be contacted.